PLAY - THE GAELIC PLAYERS PRESENT:

"The Plough and the Stars" connects Gaelic Players to rebel ancestor.

Wed. 9th - Sat. 12th Nov. at 7.30pm and Sunday 13th Nov. at 2pm.

The New Haven Gaelic Players will stage "The Plough and the Stars," a tragedy in four acts by Sean O'Casey, at the IACC November 9-13, 2016. Brian Beirne directs the 1926 Irish drama depicting events surrounding the 1916 Easter Uprising in Dublin that eventually led to Irish independence. The drama group—currently in its 48th year—previously performed "The Plough and the Stars" on the same stage in 1977. They chose the classic play for this year's production to mark the 100th anniversary of the Uprising. "O'Casey lived through this time in Dublin and wrote about it 10 years later before it was romanticized by history," says Gaelic Players founder Charlie Starrs. "He wanted to show the human side of war, and it's amazing how relevant the play still is. It could easily be set today in Syria, for instance." Eileen O'Keefe Roxbee who portrays Bessie Burgess in the production, says, "I grew up singing rebel songs with my family. When you hear about the Uprising, it's usually about the heroes, but this play is about the people behind them and how they suffered." Roxbee's grandfather, Francis O'Keefe, fought in the Kiskeam Company Newmarket Battalion Cork #2 Brigade of the IRA during the Civil War ignited by the 1916 Uprising. Her daughter, Kara Roxbee, granddaughter Caroline Pfaff, and cousins Jillian Mackey Simms and Michael DePascale are also members of the cast and descended from Francis O'Keefe. It is the first time three generations of a single family have appeared in a Gaelic Players production together. Rounding out the ensemble cast are Peter Lynch, Doreen Keogh Busca, Karl Ryan, Jason Simms, Paul Tynan, Aaron McNicholl, Seamus Lonergan, Jon Leone, Packy Lillis, and Sheila Hickey-Garvey. Tickets are $15 and available by contacting (203) 318-8258 or gaelicplayerstickets@yahoo.com.

PRESIDENT’S MESSAGE - GAELIC CLUB

Dear Club Members

I hope everyone is enjoying the (somewhat!) cooler weather of Fall. Let me start by congratulating all the New Haven players and coaches as they started the Fall season with victories at all age levels!. Best wishes to Brian Beirne who graciously agreed to direct the play again this year. Please be sure to circle a date somewhere between the 9th and 13th of November so you don’t miss this year’s performance of The Plough and the Stars. As the fall months arrive things start to get busier at your club. Lots of events are coming so circle some dates on your newsletter to come join us for a good time. Please consider inviting a friend to any of our upcoming events. Our club is only as good as its members. So many people don’t know where we are and what we do. When they learn about us they are often happy to join. Thanks and see you at the Club!

John Joe Mackey.

PRESIDENT’S MESSAGE - IACC

Dear Members,

We continue to receive new membership applications and are so happy to welcome our new members. This time of year reminds us that it is time once again to renew our membership. When doing so, I encourage you to think about donating to our capital campaign so that we can continue with our projects and complete the interior and exterior work that needs to be done. Every dollar helps us move forward. We have many events in October so please check out the newsletter. Our mission to bring Irish culture to the New Haven area continues to be at the forefront of everything we do from hosting the hurling and football games, to the traditional Irish Music concert on October 22nd and to our annual play in November from the 9th -13th, we strive to keep our Irish culture alive. We also want to provide fun activities that all of our members can enjoy like our happy hour and Halloween fun. Our support for the greater community can be seen by hosting fund raisers for organizations outside of our club and individuals that need our support. Please support our club and our greater community by attending one or all of our events this fall. See you at the club!
Slainte, Eileen O’Keefe Roxbee.
